

Nancy Watt Marin, Ph.D.

1485 Chain Bridge Road, Suite 304-F
McLean, VA 22101

Nancy@marinpsychologyassociates.com
Phone: 202-427-9015

Commonwealth of Virginia Psychologist License #081000

Clinical Experience

Private Practitioner (April 2021 – present)

Marin Psychology Associates, McLean, VA

- Conduct psychological, psychoeducational, and neuropsychological batteries for children, adolescents, young adults, and adults.
- Conduct admissions testing for Washington Area Independent Schools
- Conduct cognitive testing for entrance to Fairfax County Advanced Academic Programs
- Conduct psychotherapy and Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder Coaching with elementary, middle, and high school aged children
- Serve as a consultant at local Independent Schools

Private Practitioner (December 2015 – March 2021)

Weaver and Associates, McLean, VA

- Conduct psychological, psychoeducational, and neuropsychological batteries for children, adolescents, young adults, and adults.
- Conduct admissions testing for Washington Area Independent Schools
- Conduct cognitive testing for entrance to Fairfax County Advanced Academic Programs
- Conduct psychotherapy and Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder Coaching with elementary, middle, and high school aged children
- Serve as a consultant at local Independent Schools

Psychology Resident (December 2014 – August 2015)

Northern Virginia Psychology Associates, Falls Church, VA

- Completed psychological, psychoeducational, and neuropsychological batteries for children, adolescents, and young adults
- Completed admissions testing for Washington area Independent Schools
- Conducted psychotherapy with elementary school aged children
- Served as a psycho-educational tester at The Potomac School, McLean, VA

Psychology Resident (November 2013 – August 2015)

Lisa Nava and Associates, Alexandria, VA

- Completed psychological, psychoeducational, and neuropsychological batteries for children, adolescents, and young adults
- Completed AAP testing for Fairfax County Public Schools
- Conducted ADHD coaching with elementary, middle, and high school aged children

Psychology Associate (September 2001 – June 2004)

The Wake Kendall Group PLLC, Washington, DC

- Completed psychological, psychoeducational, and neuropsychological batteries for children, adolescents, and young adults
- Completed admissions testing for Washington area Independent Schools
- Conducted psychotherapy with elementary school aged children
- Served as a consultant and psycho-educational tester at Sidwell Friends Middle School, Washington, DC and the Barrie School, Silver Spring, MD

Intern in Clinical Child / Pediatric Psychology, APA approved (September 2000 – August 2001)

Georgetown University Child Development Center

- Assessed infants, toddlers, children, and adolescents with a wide array of developmental disabilities, developmental delays, learning disabilities, emotional problems, and medical/neurological disorders. Assessment experience included cognitive, academic, emotional, and neuropsychological testing.
- Worked within an interdisciplinary team consisting of pediatricians, developmental specialists, physical therapists, occupational therapists, speech therapists, nutritionists, and psychologists.
- Consulted with teachers, early childhood educators, and other community human services and educational personnel regarding learning and emotional issues for children and families.
- Conducted therapy and intervention with children and families in the clinic and in community settings.

School Counselor (August 1999 – June 2000)

Stoddert Elementary School, Glover Park, Washington, DC

- Completed all school psycho-educational batteries to determine eligibility for special education services and to specify IEP goals and objectives
- Conducted counseling with elementary school students
- Interpreted assessments obtained outside of the school to determine IEP goals and objectives
- Conducted didactic seminars for parents, teachers, and school administrators on developmental disabilities, learning disabilities, and psychological assessment and treatment

Clinical Psychology Extern (August 1998 – May 1999)

Hospital for Sick Children, Washington, DC

- Worked alongside pediatricians and pediatric specialists to aid patient's psychological adjustment to hospitalization and medical treatment
- Conducted psychological, psycho-educational, and neuropsychological assessments of patients in conjunction with a neuropsychologist
- Participated in clinical rounds, didactic seminars, and Pediatric Grand Rounds on a weekly basis.

Clinical Psychology Extern (January 1999 – May 1999)

American University Anxiety Disorders Lab

- Conducted group therapy for Panic Control Treatment groups with adults meeting clinical criteria for Panic Disorder
- Utilized a manualized treatment program to focus on cognitive-behavioral methods for stress management and panic control

Clinical and Research Assistant

Children's National Medical Center, Washington, DC

- Served as an interviewer and research assistant for a clinical trial examining the effectiveness of a slow release form of Ritalin in children with ADHD, all types.

Pre-professional Trainee

The Devereux Foundation, Philadelphia, PA

- Participated in a unique training program that provides college graduates with the opportunity to engage in psychological research and clinical practicum at The Devereux Foundation
- Participated in the development and revision of the Devereux Scales through the Institute of Clinical Training and Research
- Worked onsite at a Devereux residential treatment facility assisting patients

Research Experience

Dissertation Researcher (September 1999 – August 2003)

- Completed Dissertation research on how parents' approach to discussing epilepsy helped form their self-concept and coping.
- Dissertation Title: Improving Parent and Child Adjustment to Epilepsy Using Parental Strategic Self-Presentation and Emotional Disclosure.
- Research data utilized by Children's National Medical Center to assist families and inform treatment protocols for children diagnosed with epilepsy.

Graduate Researcher (September 1995 – August 1999)

- Completed Master's thesis research on comparing cognitive restructuring to a hyperventilation technique in working with college students.
- Thesis Title: The Impact of Cognitive Restructuring and Distraction on Repeated Hyperventilation among College Students.

Undergraduate Researcher (September 1992 – May 1994)

- Completed Honors Thesis Research on Unipolar Depression
- Honors Thesis Title: Personality Variables which Increase the Risk for Unipolar Depression

Research Assistant (January 1993 – May 1994)

- Worked as a research assistant on a study concerning children's recall of a doctor visit.
- Trained as a child interviewer
- Coded recorded interviews for recall and elaboration

Education

American University, Washington, DC

Clinical Psychology Doctoral Program (APA approved)

Doctor of Philosophy in Clinical Psychology, December 2003

University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology with Highest Honors, May 1994